The handwriting practice sheet is divided into several horizontal sections, each with a set of three horizontal lines (top, middle, bottom) to guide letter height and placement. The first section is for the cursive letter 'n'. It starts with a solid 'n' showing a downward arrow on the left stem and a curved arrow at the top indicating the direction of the hump. This is followed by a row of dashed 'n's for tracing, then a row of solid 'n's for independent practice, and finally a row of dotted 'n's for tracing. The second section is for the cursive letter 'm'. It follows the same pattern: a solid 'm' with directional arrows, a row of dashed 'm's for tracing, a row of solid 'm's for independent practice, and a row of dotted 'm's for tracing. The third section is for the cursive letter 'o'. It begins with a solid 'o' showing a downward arrow on the left side. This is followed by a row of dashed 'o's for tracing, a row of solid 'o's for independent practice, and a final row of dotted 'o's for tracing.
